Misc. Resources	York Co. PA	Harold Haney's Barter Barn	The way it works is you come in and shop and if you see things that you would like or need you can trade other goods your services your physical help around the shop. You can pay for gas in my truck you can pay for maintenance on my vehicle. You can pay for the rental of the storefront I am using. But you do not pay me anything for the products you get. A lot of what I get I would like to specifically help out vets in need, fire victims, those who are less fortunate and cannot afford to buy things. I have or come a crossed just about anything a person could need or want and I give away for free a lot of stuff. I am starting here in York County Pennsylvania but would like to see this movement reach across America and then eventually around the world. So if you have things that you can afford to get rid of and would like to donate I will except them under one condition you come in and shop for something you were looking for at my store.
